Present a one-day conference

The Voice of the Child: New developments in contact & domestic violence

Weds March 22nd 2006
10am – 4.15pm

B.T. Conference Centre
Newgate Street, London

What are young adults' views on court ordered contact? What new arrangements are available for managing cases?

The programme offers practitioners up to date information on developments, resources and facilities for managing cases of domestic violence, focusing on the welfare of the child.

The conference will present new theory and practice in the plenaries - from speakers who are leaders in their field.

Workshops will explore innovative projects and new ways of working led by experienced practitioners.

Launch of new DVD and pack

Young people want help in recognising controlling or violent relationships. Highlighting teenage dating violence, this stunning DVD is written and acted by young people at Surrey Youth Development Service.
